

Tax Advisory & Compliance Services

Managing Tax

Many of life's decisions, both business and personal, have tax implications. Combine this with the fact that tax legislation is complex and always changing, and it can sometimes be difficult to understand what you need to do to comply with your tax obligations.

At Foo Kon Tan, we take an integrated approach to managing taxes. We offer a range of domestic and international tax services ranging from compliance and consulting to company and sales taxes, which are designed to meet the needs of the client. We do this by delivering a proactive, cost effective service which assists clients with their filing obligations and minimises tax leakage.

As globalisation continues, businesses need to understand the cost of operating in multiple-tax jurisdictions. With access to tax specialists around the globe, we can help clients make informed decisions when operating outside their domestic markets. We can advise on an appropriate location for operations, profit repatriation, financing and exit strategies and asset protection. Our tax specialists will work with clients to ensure they comply with all the necessary requirements despite the complicated and constantly changing tax environments.
